

Dant Advocacy Promotes Danielle Coulter and Berkley Ramsey

Emerging leaders recognized at firm listed by U.S. News Best Lawyers as among the best law firms in government relations

Indianapolis, IN (August 16, 2021) – Dant Advocacy, Inc., a leading government affairs firm located in Indianapolis, announced today the promotions of two emerging leaders, Danielle Coulter to Vice President and Berkley Ramsey to Senior Government Affairs Associate.

“To be an effective government affairs advocate, you need to have integrity and experience. Danielle and Berkley are highly respected across state and local government, with their experiences ranging from running for and serving in public office, to working for legislators both in the Statehouse and on the campaign trail. Their strong relationships with elected officials, combined with their collective experience in state and local government, allow our firm to advance our clients’ agendas in a bipartisan, strategic manner,” said Miriam Dant, President, Dant Advocacy, Inc.

Danielle Coulter, Vice President

Coulter joined Dant Advocacy in 2014, previously serving as Senior Government Affairs Associate and Communications Manager. Her additional experience includes serving as Deputy Director of Government Affairs for the Association of Indiana Counties and as a legislative assistant for the Indiana House of Representatives.

Coulter served as Indianapolis City-County Councillor representing District 23 from 2018 through 2019 and ran as the slated Republican candidate for Marion County Treasurer in 2016. She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the FBI Indianapolis Citizens Academy Alumni Association. Coulter is a graduate of several political leadership programs, including the Lugar Series and the Indiana Leadership Forum, as well as several community-based programs, including the Indianapolis Public Safety Citizens Academy and the Indianapolis People’s Planning Academy.

Berkley Ramsey, Senior Government Affairs Associate

Ramsey joined Dant Advocacy in 2018 and previously served as Government Affairs Associate. His additional experience includes serving as a legislative assistant for the Indiana House of Representatives.

Ramsey earned his master’s degree in international relations and affairs in 2020. He is a soon-to-be graduate of the Indiana Leadership Forum and a graduate of the Bowen Institute for Political Participation.

Dant Advocacy is entering its fifteenth year of providing government affairs services, regulatory representation, and procurement services and has been certified by the state of Indiana as a Women’s Business Enterprise for lobbying and professional procurement services.
